About Embedded Systems Week (ESWEEK)

Embedded Systems Week (ESWEEK) is the premier event covering all aspects of embedded systems and software. By bringing together three leading conferences (CASES, CODES+ISSS, EMSOFT), a special IoMT Day, a symposium (NOCS), and hot-topic workshops and tutorials, ESWEEK presents attendees a wide range of topics unveiling the state of the art in embedded systems design and HW/SW architectures.

Tutorial Proposals:

April 30, 2019

Conference:

October 13-18, 2019

One Registration, three Conferences !

Registered attendees are entitled to attend sessions of all conferences CASES, CODES+ISSS, EMSOFT, and the IoMT Day. Symposia, workshops, and tutorials require separate registration.

Tutorial Proposals

ESWEEK 2018 is looking for high-quality, timely tutorials to enrich its technical program. Tutorials offer a unique opportunity where presenters can interact closely with attendees and attendees can gain in-depth knowledge on a specific topic. Tutorials on all topics related to embedded system design, analysis and development are welcome. ESWEEK 2019 tutorials will take place on Sunday, October 13th, and can be either half day or full day, lecture style or hands on labs. We invite you to submit tutorial proposals before the deadline of April 30, 2019.

Submission Details: A PDF file including the following information:

- Title of the tutorial.
- Abstract (max 500 words) describing motivation, intended audience, and main contents.
- Organizers and speakers with short bio, affiliation, and their expertise in the proposed topic(s).
- List of topics to be covered.
- Length and format of the tutorial (lecture, hands-on), and any special requirement for the tutorial room.
- If the tutorial has been previously offered, provide information on the conference, date, and number of attendees.

Please submit your tutorial proposal by email to the ESWEEK 2019 Tutorials and Special Sessions Chair: Andreas Gerstlauer, University of Texas Austin, US, at gerstl@ece.utexas.edu. Please write “[ESWEEK 2019] Tutorial Proposal” on the e-mail subject line.
